Professors Emeriti Club

University of Utah

#1 September 2015-16

"The Future of Health Care
at University of Utah Health Sciences"

Continuing a tradition of having a senior University administrator as guest speaker at Fall semester's first luncheon, the Emeriti Club will welcome Dr. Vivian S. Lee on Oct. 13.

Since July 2011, Dr. Lee has served as Senior Vice President for Health Sciences, Dean of the University's School of Medicine, and CEO of University of Utah Health Care.

Her topic in her first appearance before the Emeriti Club will be "The Future of Health Care at University of Utah Health Sciences."

Lee is responsible for an annual budget of $3.3 billion, including a healthcare system, health plan, and Schools of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Health and Dentistry.

A graduate of Harvard-Radcliffe, Lee received a doctorate in medical engineering at Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar. Returning to Harvard, she earned her M.D. with honors. Following a residency in Diagnostic Radiology at Duke, she trained as a fellow in MRI at NYU.

Prior to coming to Utah, she served as inaugural Vice Dean for Science, Senior Vice President and Chief Scientific Officer at New York University Langone Medical Center.

Lee is currently principal investigator for two NIH R01 grants. Elected to the American Society of Clinical Investigation, she serves on NIH Council of Councils and the Journal Oversight Committee for JAMA. A Fellow and past President of the International Society for Magnetic Resonance in Medicine (ISMRM), she has authored over 150 papers and a popular textbook, Cardiovascular MRI: Physical Principles to Practical Protocols.

Lee's research focuses on quantitative functional MRI for the improved understanding of physiology and disease.

Luncheon Menu Tuesday, October 13, 12:15 p.m., Union Building Saltair Room

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

Dennis Alexander

First, let me congratulate all who are recognized as new members to emeritus/a status. Your honor initiated by your departments or administrative unit, then ratified by the Board of Trustees, is a significant step in your career. Most of us do more than retire, we step into new roles.

Second, for those of you who have had time to adjust to your roles, welcome back to another year of the Emeriti Club Newsletter. Over the next eight monthly issues we hope to offer you interesting things to do and opportunities to participate.

Foremost among our activities are the luncheons with a variety of interesting presentations. Michele and Henry, our activities coordinators, find a wonderful collection of artistic and travel opportunities. I encourage you to take advantage of these events.

One item of business the Executive Board had to deal with during the summer was the increasing cost of luncheons. We have kept the cost to you at $15.00 for several years. The actual cost of a lunch is higher; the club dues and other funding sources help us create a small subsidy to defray a slight portion of the cost. This year's increases were a bit more than we could manage and so it was decided to increase the cost of the luncheon to $16.00.

Not all emeriti participate in our activities. Again, I encourage you to become more involved with the wonderful people who do attend and participate. We are all better for the company of others. Have a great 2015-2016.

EMERITI DOINGS

Utah Museum of Fine Arts: The British Passion for Landscape

Tour the Exhibition at UMFA with a Curator
Wednesday, 21 October 2015, 1:00pm

We have a special treat coming up next month! Your Co-Activities Coördinator Michele Margetts has arranged for interested Emeriti Club members to tour the newly opened traveling exhibition at the Utah Museum of Fine Arts titled “The British Passion for Landscape.” Drawn from the collections of the National Museum of Wales, this fine exhibition traces the rise of landscape painting in Britain from the Industrial Revolution through Romanticism, Impressionism, Modernism, and beyond in the works of such artists as Richard Wilson, Thomas Gainsborough, J. M. W. Turner, John Constable, and Claude Monet.

On October 21 at 1:00pm we will be escorted through the exhibition by Luke Kelly, Assistant Curator of Antiquities at UMFA. Mr. Kelly is the lead curator of “The British Passion...” for its Utah run.

Because the museum is such a pleasant place to spend time, you may wish to come early and enjoy a delicious light lunch at the Museum Café serving salads, sandwiches, and seasonal beverages. Support the Café and you support local vendors! After our tour don't forget the Museum Store with an intriguing variety of gifts from jewelry to pottery to puzzles, great art books and exhibition catalogues, and notecards you'll be proud to pop in the mail. Here, too, you will be supporting local Utah artisans. Finally, remember contributions to UMFA are always welcome and make a difference in the cultural lives of the U's students and the wider community.

Please note this is a ticketed event; however, with your Emeriti UCard you will receive a free admission. The exhibition ordinarily costs $14 for adults / $12 for seniors and youth 6-18, but for family and friends who might like to accompany you, Michele has arranged a special price of $8. Fill out the reservation form on page 7 and return it to our treasurer by Oct. 6. Your tickets will be distributed at the Oct. 13 luncheon, or mailed if you prefer. Mark your calendar today for our October 21 guided tour!

The Museum will close for renovation beginning January 2016, so now is your chance to enjoy all UMFA has to offer!

Emeriti Hiking Group

2015 Schedule

Hikes are bimonthly on Friday mornings. Details of time and meeting place will be sent by the trip leaders to those on the mailing list about a week ahead of time. Because they are sent to a list of many addresses they might end up in your 'junk/spam' folder: check there if you seem to be missing out. If a trip has to be canceled we reschedule for the following week if possible. It is always a courtesy to let the trip leader know if you plan to be on a hike – and they can inform you of any last minute changes. Not on the list? Send a request to Bill Gray (cyberflora@xmission.com) or Suzanne Stensaas (suzanne.stensaas@hsc.utah.edu) and include your email, phone and address.

Date	Place	Leaders	Rating
September 25	Grizzly Gulch	Lotti Wann	2-3
October 9	Elbow Fork to Terraces	Donna Gelfand	2
October 23	Bonneville Shoreline Trail	Ben & Sherilyn Bennion	1
November 6	Ensign Peak to City Creek	Ramon Johnson	2
November 20	Jordan River Parkway	Joyce Foster	1
December 11	Hike and Wassail	Barbara West	1

Capitol Reef, Emeriti Camping/Moteling and Driving/Hiking Trip. Sept. 14-18

When you receive this there just might be time to join the Emeriti hiking group on an easy-strenuous annual "camp" out. Some will stay in motels or cabins and others at camps or RV areas in Torrey where we will begin our daily assortment of easy-to-hard, half-day to full-day hikes or exotic drives. There will be something for all interests and abilities. Bill Gray and Suzanne Stensaas are organizing it but they need to hear from you. High season is on in Torrey with motels hard to get and the national park does not take reservations. Some of us are staying at Thousand Lakes RV Park and Cabins on the west end of Torrey www.thousandlakesrvpark.com, 800-355-8995. Better to reserve on the phone, they say. Email for more details or to sign up: suzanne.stensaas@hsc.utah.edu OR cyberflora@xmission.com.

The School of Music is again offering emeriti members and up to two guests each, $1 vouchers for all School of Music concerts, including the Virtuoso series during the upcoming school year. All concerts are at Libby Gardner Concert Hall and begin at 7:30 pm, unless otherwise noted. ¶ The vouchers may be redeemed at the LGCH box office one hour before the concert or anytime at regular box office hours at Kingsbury Hall. Each voucher may be redeemed for one general admission ticket without further processing fees. With processing fees, general admission tickets cost $10, so members receive a substantial savings. Remember, all tickets are first come-first served, so redeeming your voucher early ensures you a seat. Should the tickets be sold out when you go to redeem your voucher, the voucher may be used for any other School of Music event throughout the year. Vouchers will be available for purchase at all Emeriti luncheons from Henry Wolking.

¶ Upcoming School of Music concerts in September members might find of interest are: 9/17 Utah Philharmonia, 9/18 "Midnight with Mozart" SummerArts Winners with American West Symphony, and 9/30 Jazz Spotlight with the Jazz Ensembles directed by the new Director of Jazz Studies, Kris Johnson. The emeriti newsletter will keep you informed of noteworthy concerts throughout the year.
