THE IMPERIAL GLEE CLUB

Cache Valley's historic men's chorus, The Imperial Glee Club, was founded in 1916. The Imperial Glee is celebrating its 97th Season, making it one of the oldest continuously performing men's choruses in the United States. Its members come from the various communities of Cache Valley. Under the capable direction of Warren Barton, the club is dedicated to fostering four-part male choral music and it meets one night each week for rehearsal.

The club has a rich history which includes performing at a regional Rotary Club conference in Seattle, Washington in 1928. The club performed minstrel shows at the Capital Theatre in Logan, Utah, during the WWII years, under the direction of Dr. Walter Welti.

Today, the Imperial Glee performs regularly for civic events, such as The Star-Spangled Celebration in Hyrum, each 4th of July, Veteran's Day Concerts, and public concerts in the Logan Tabernacle each Spring and at Christmas time. As a service organization, the Club accepts invitations to sing at local churches, civic organizations, rest homes and public gatherings. Last September, the Club performed a Military Memorial at the Cache County fairgrounds where a replica of the Vietnam Wall was displayed, to honor those who have fallen in defense of this country. Each year, the Imperial Glee Club performs at 25-30 venues throughout Utah and Southern Idaho. In four years, The Imperial Glee Club will celebrate their Centennial Season.

Emeriti Doings

Robert Huefner has been named one of the 2013 Distinguished Alumnus/a Awards by the University of Utah Alumni Association. The most recent newsletter of the association wrote, “Huefner, after graduating from the U, went on to receive a master’s degree in city planning from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and a doctorate in finance from Harvard University. He is a noted health care and public policy expert, and he directs the Institute of Comparative Health Services Research at the University of Utah, where he is a professor emeritus of political science. Huefner formerly worked in city, county, state, and federal governments and held the Governor Scott M. Matheson Presidential Endowed Chair in Health Policy and Management at the U.”

From an unnamed source, we find that Ed Lueders shares his talent with more than the Emeriti Luncheons. This picture was taken at the University Hospital.

Jan Brunvand has a new edition of Urban Legends. He writes, “In July the Revised and Expanded Edition of my Encyclopedia of Urban Legends was published by ABC-CLIO, a publisher of reference works. The first edition, one volume, came out in 2001. The revision adds many entries for “new” urban legends, especially those circulating internationally, and it has a Type Index of Urban Legends. I worked on it for about two years.”

Welcome One More New Emeriti Club Member

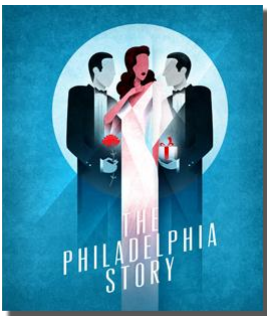

We have received confirmation of another emeritus who received appointment. The total of new emeriti for 2012/13 now stands at 35. Rita T. Reusch is now emeritus librarian from the Law Library.

Electronic Versions of the Newsletter One More Push

We will continue to mail copies of the Newsletter to most people but do encourage those of you comfortable with electronic communication to join the growing numbers who receive the Newsletter by email. Email has several of advantages over the mailed version: it comes in color, has larger type in the PDF format, sometimes offer notes that are too recent for the newsletter, and arrives within a day of its completion. Moreover, the electronic version is essentially cost free; the mailed version has material, printing, and postage costs which the Emeriti Club must absorb (plus snail mail and printing takes up to 10 days to complete). Contact Bill Ohlsen at flyfisher1i8@yahoo.com to receive our newsletter electronically.

Dues for the Emeriti Club

If you have not yet paid dues, please be aware that the dues are voluntary but very helpful to the emeriti mission of keeping you informed and providing opportunities for activities and community. The fee of $10 for a person or $20 for a couple may be sent to Jeanne Robson using the luncheon reservation form whether or not you attend the luncheon.

THE PHILADELPHIA STORY

The sparkling romantic comedy that has charmed generations of theatergoers!

Tracy Lord is young, beautiful, sophisticated, fabulously wealthy, and about to marry what she thinks is the man of her dreams. But when her dashing ex-husband and the two reporters assigned to cover her wedding descend on her family's opulent country house outside Philadelphia the day before the ceremony, Tracy has a hard time keeping her nuptials—not to mention the dictates of her own heart—on track.

Medicare Enrollment and Change Deadline is December 7

Many Emeriti Club members have found savings or better benefits from carefully considering Medicare Supplement versus MedAdvantage offerings. These two plans are private insurers giving extended coverage to Medicare. Please take the time to explore these important choices to your health needs. The booklet sent by the government Medicare & You contains a wealth of information charts on costs. The University's Human Resource Department also is helpful.

HOLIDAY ORCHESTRA AND CHOIRS CONCERT

Don't forget the School of Music is providing $1 vouchers to Emeriti members for the Orchestra and Choirs Holiday Concert on Friday and Saturday, December 7 & 8, at Libby Gardner Concert Hall (LGCH) 7:30 pm. If you haven't purchased a voucher, but would still like to do so, please contact me at henry.wolking@music.utah.edu or call me at 801 664 8147

Please remember you must redeem your voucher for a ticket at the LGCH box office one hour before the concert or anytime at regular box office hours at Kingsbury Hall. Should the tickets be sold out when you redeem your voucher, the voucher may be used for any other school of music event throughout the year. So the hint is to redeem them early! Henry wolking
