Chamber Choir Holiday Concert: An Emeriti Tradition
Please Note! The December 5 Luncheon Will Be Held on a Wednesday
and Will Begin at 12:00 Noon

Please join us for the 6th annual holiday concert by the award-winning U of U Chamber Choir at our luncheon on Wednesday, December 5, starting promptly at 12:00 noon. The choir [is] renowned for its beauty of sound and refined musicianship, producing memorable and meaningful performances year after year... In 2018, the choir was invited as one of four choirs from around the world (the only one from the United States) to perform as a headliner at the 14th China International Chorus Festival and IFCM World Choral Education Conference in Beijing, China. This festival welcomes hundreds of choirs every 2 years as it brings musicians together from all over the world. It is an honor to have the choir, with its director, Professor Barlow Bradford, join us again. For the Choir's convenience, their performance will come before the entrée is served and, as stated above, will start at 12:00 noon.

The University of Utah Prison Education Project

The Utah Prison Education Project (UPEP) assists incarcerated students in making positive impacts, both in prison and post-incarceration by fostering academic excellence, leadership, and civic engagement.

The UPEP grew out of the 2016-2017 Honors Praxis Lab: Education, Incarceration, and Justice. At this time, UPEP is a non-credit program. Everyone who works for UPEP currently does so as a volunteer. The organization is now raising funds to help UPEP become a credit-bearing program. Through a strategic partnership with Salt Lake Community College, UPEP hopes to provide a four-year degree pathway inside Utah State Prisons.

If you wish to volunteer for teaching, tutoring, or administrative positions, please email [u pep@utah.edu](mailto:u pep@utah.edu). All UPEP classes take place during the evening from 5-8 p.m., one day per week, in the Draper facility. Course proposals for Fall 2019 and Spring 2020 are currently being accepted. To be added to UPEP's newsletter list, please send an email to [u pep@utah.edu](mailto:u pep@utah.edu). Please consider making a gift to UPEP, purchasing items from the Amazon Wish List, and/or donating computer equipment (all students currently write research papers by hand!).

Portugal in Depth

It is time to consider where you wish to vacation next spring and with whom you would like to travel. What better companions could you have than your friends and colleagues from the Professors Emeriti Club? And what more delicious a destination in so many ways than Portugal? A beautiful country on the Iberian Peninsula often lost in the shadow of its larger neighbor, Portugal has the vigorous history of an ocean-going Atlantic nation yet something of the warm sultriness of a Mediterranean country full of vivid color and sunlight glancing off whitewashed walls.

An added treat, we will be in Portugal during Easter Week and can experience rich local traditions: crosses wrapped in flowers and hung on front doors, street processions, traditional foods including a Good Friday codfish dish and a special Easter sweet bread, folar de Páscoa. If that weren't enough, I'm happy to say the Óbidos International Chocolate Festival will also be on while we're there!

The pricing on this 12-day tour (including daily breakfasts and five dinners) is exceptionally good. If you put in your $250 deposit before the early booking discount deadline of Nov. 27, the land cost is a totally tempting $1,997! We are working on the airfare and will hope to get you the best possible deal.

Request an itinerary, then come join your Emeriti colleagues for this wonderful Journey of Discovery ~ at an AbFab Price!

Land: $1,997 per person double occ. (with early booking discount – ends Nov. 27; $2,219 thereafter)

Air: working on it    Single supplement: $570    Triple discount: $65 per person

Group space released Dec. 18, 2018    Final payment due: Jan. 31, 2019

Emeriti in Action: Books, Books, Books

Lorna Smith Benjamin, Psychology, is the author of Interpersonal Reconstructive Therapy for Anger, Anxiety, and Depression: It's About Broken Hearts, Not Broken Brains, published by the American Psychological Association in 2018. She is presently signing contracts for her next tour of Europe. As Dr. Benjamin tells us, "everybody wants to hear more about how to work with 'treatment resistant' psychiatric patients." She continues her one-day a week contract at the U of U Neuropsychiatric Institute.

The U of U Press has just released Edward Lueders' book, The Salt Lake Papers: From the Years in the Earthscapes of Utah. In describing the book, the Press states, "Once again cast in the companionable style of journal entries and notes that readers enjoyed in Lueders's 1977 creative nonfiction classic The Clam Lake Papers, this new investigation into language and ways of knowing follows the author's move from the north woods of Wisconsin to the Intermountain West of Utah." Dr. Lueders is professor emeritus of English and our Emeriti Club pianist par excellence!

Jack Newell, Education, along with Linda King Newell, and Robert Alan Goldberg are editors of and contributing authors to Conscience and Community: Sterling M. McMurrin, Obert C. Tanner, and Lowell L. Bennion, published by the U of U Press in July 2018. In her review of the book, Lavina Fielding Anderson, editor, Salt Lake City, writes, "In the mid-twentieth century as the LDS Church slid into increasing xenophobia and anti-intellectualism, Sterling McMurrin, Obert Tanner, and Lowell Bennion raised underappreciated but eloquent voices. With robust liberalism, tough integrity, and loyalty to principle, they steadfastly called Mormonism back to its best self. The need for such voices now, in the disillusionment, violence, and fear of the early twenty-first century, is intense. These sparkling and insightful essays come at the right moment."
