

Anne and Ron – Together Again After All These Years

In February two well-known and beloved actors, Anne Cullimore Decker and Ron Frederickson, will present readings of two short plays written by local playwright Elaine Jarvik. The playlets are: Dead Right and Together at Last, a pair of humorous and heartwarming conversations between aging married couples. What could be more apposite?

Jarvik won a Humana Award for the play Dead Right. It has been anthologized at least once.

Ron Frederickson, a U alum and Theatre Professor Emeritus of Emporia State University in Kansas, was also Adjunct Professor of Theatre at the University of Utah from 2001 to Dec. 2015. During his career he has directed over 80 student productions, including several for the U's Studio 115 Theatre.

Recent roles include "Maraczek" in She Loves Me (Babcock Theatre), "Beethoven" in 33 Variations (Silver Summit Theatre Co.), and "Selsdon" in Noises Off (Westminster College), as well as "Robert" in Proof and "Willy" in The Sunshine Boys, both for Pinnacle Acting Co. Ron's very first play, Ten Little Indians, was in 1959 in the U's Playbox Theatre with "fellow" actor Anne Cullimore Decker.

A former faculty member of the University's Theatre Department in the Actor Training Program, Anne Decker continues to remain active as an actor, educator, and arts advocate. Her most recent credit: Julie Jensen's Winter (based on Peggy Battin's short story), which played for five weeks to sold-out houses. She also was recently seen in Pioneer Theatre Company's The Crucible. She will be doing a Staged Reading for Plan-B Theatre Company Feb. 20-21; and will play "Lady Bracknell" in The Importance of Being Earnest in June for Pinnacle Acting Company.

Her most recent film was: Darling Companion playing the Mother of Kevin Kline. Recently she was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Fine Arts from the U.

Have you paid your dues? one might be asked. Of course I have, might be the reply. Hence my emeritus status. Yes, but this is a different question. Have you paid annual dues to the Professors Emeriti Club? It is, of course, a voluntary contribution on your part. But it is an important consideration. Members' dues cover a significant portion of the club's operating expenses for monthly luncheons, honoraria for luncheon presentations, and the newsletter you are reading. Please give some thought to helping the club in this way. While it's not expected, it is greatly appreciated. $12/single; $24/couple. See the luncheon reservation form on page 5 for how you may make payment. Thank you.

2017 EMERITI TOUR: 31 August – 14 September 2017 / with an Option for Downton Abbey

Best of Devon & Cornwall + a Week in London

Our super special September tour begins with a full week in London where you will be fancy free to walk, bike, hit a host of museums, attend the theatre, ballet, and concerts before we take to the road where you'll enjoy a mix of iconic sights, such as Windsor Castle, Stonehenge, and the Roman baths of Bath, and many other destinations less familiar—from stately homes (Longleat and St. Michael's Mount) to ruined castles (Tintagel) to charming villages coastal and otherwise (Laycock, Dunster, Lynmouth, St. Ives). Where else but Britain can you get homey pub grub and Gregorian chant within a 24-hour period?

The tour cost covers accommodation throughout, plus 16 meals—that's six continental breakfasts, seven full English breakfasts, one lunch, and two dinners. After our independent days in London (with Downton Abbey option; also info on a London Pass & Travelcard available on request), for our second week transportation from London through the West Country and back is included, with portage, sightseeing and an expert tour director—plus special treats not listed in the itinerary!

Tip for our travelers:

Your passport should be good for a minimum of six months after your planned travel. Ten years ago passports were first required for travel to Canada & Mexico, so if your passport is due to expire best to renew it now as the higher than usual volume of renewals could mean as much as a six-week delay in receiving your new passport.

It's too good to be missed. Plan on joining us next September when the crowds have thinned and the weather is still as decent as weather ever gets in Britain.

NOTA BENE: 1) It is possible to skip the London stay and do only Devon & Cornwall (cost incl. air: approx. $3169). 2) For the London week you must contact whitehall.reservations@grangehotels.com with our unique reference number; you will then be sent a provisional confirmation with a secure weblink enabling you to supply your credit card information, thus guaranteeing your reservation. Your card will not be charged for the London hotel until next September. 3) For Downton Optional Daytrip: $165 (book in advance!)

Deposit: $200 (non-refundable) for Devon/Cornwall (land cost: $1733.75) London hotel: ppdo approx. $605

Airfare: $1435 at present (direct SLC-London) (We are hoping for a lower airfare if possible!)

Airport & hotel transfers: $70      Travel Insurance: optional, but recommended

15-day Tour total incl. air: per person double occupancy approx. $3840 at current rate of exchange
