November Meeting: Pat Bagley On "Bagley Behind The Lines"

In addition to being a Beehive State institution, Pat Bagley is the longest continuously-employed, full-time editorial cartoonist in America, having created over 10,000 cartoons in his forty years with The Salt Lake Tribune. His work is syndicated around the globe and he has won dozens of awards, including finalist for the Pulitzer Prize.

Please join us via Zoom on November 9 at 12:00 noon for Pat Bagley's talk. To access this program, please see the links, phone number, and other information listed below.

For security reasons, please do not share the following links or phone numbers.

Two Easy Ways To Contribute To The Emeriti Club!

Back by popular demand. Members of the Emeriti Club have mentioned that they looked forward to seeing the book recommendations featured in last year’s newsletter, so once again we invite you to share what’s on your current reading list. Send your suggestions to mailto:jerilyn.mcintyre@mac.com?subject=book recomendations

Also, thanks to all of you who responded to our survey about possible interest groups or workshops for members of the Emeritus Club. If you haven’t had a chance to let us know your preferences, here again is the link <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/NPGJMW9>

President's Column
Don Strassberg

Dear Emeriti Club members: I'm excited that our 2021-2022 Emeriti Club program year has begun and that we could start with the interesting and timely presentation by our University's Vice President and General Counsel, Phyllis Vetter. I can promise that all of our presentations this year will be well worth attending.

We are looking forward to returning to our in-person luncheon meetings as soon as we believe we can do so safely. The Board has already decided that the Club's November meeting will also be virtual. No decision has yet been made regarding the December meeting.

When we do return in-person, we will be requiring luncheon attendees to be fully vaccinated and that masks be worn except when eating/drinking. We will also be Zooming all our meetings this year, even when we return to luncheons, so that all members will be able to participate even when not attending in-person. We will also be maximizing social distancing (as feasible) while trying to facilitate small groups of people who wish to sit together. Servers will be masked and will meet all other mitigations required by the Olpin Union of its employees.

Our past-president, Jerilyn McIntyre, included a list of suggested book titles in her monthly Club Newsletters last year and will graciously continue to do so (see above). Starting with this newsletter, I will be listing some television shows I think you might enjoy (but given my taste in TV, I'd especially love to get additional suggestions from you).

Thanks for being part of this wonderful group and I look forward to "seeing you" (on Zoom or, hopefully, soon in person) at our monthly meetings.

Sincerely,

Emeriti Awards

Please let me know of awards you have received since becoming an Emeritus. This month we have:

Erich Petersen, professor emeritus and economic geologist, is the 2021 recipient of the Ralph W. Marsden Award from the Society for Economic Geologists (SEG). The award honors outstanding service to the Society and “exceptional stewardship and contributions to Society affairs.”

The Emeritus Hiking Group Is Back In Action After A Year's Hiatus

Alta geology hike this September

In April the Emeritus Hiking Group cautiously resumed hiking with those vaccinated. We moved our weekly hike to Monday, to avoid the increased local exploration of our mountains. Two out-of-town camping adventures were scheduled. In April we camped at the Big Bend Group Site along the Colorado River north of Moab to enjoy hiking, birding, a day raft trip, and great potluck dinners with half the group comfortable in Moab while those in tents fought the wind or luxuriated in our vans.

Hike leaders come from among the group choosing urban, easy, challenging and educational hikes depending on the leader. More recently a geology hike with Prof Petersen to Catherine Pass from Alta was a rock-solid success. Our Wasatch trailheads are usually within an hour of home. New members are welcome by contacting the group organizer, Suzanne.Stensaas@hsc.utah.edu with your name, department affiliation, mailing address, cell and land line numbers. Weekly announcements are sent to our email only mailing list.
